RESTAURANT TRAINING, ORGANIZED BEFORE SERVICE

THREE NYC FOUNDING OPENINGS

Your restaurant's training library, built and maintained for you.

Send us your menus, tech sheets, wine lists, cocktail specs, SOPs, and existing Google Docs. Line Up turns them into a branded portal where staff can study, practice, and stay ready for service.

FOUNDING OFFER

$500 one-time setup

$99/mo after 30 days

COMPLETELY DONE FOR YOU

1

Send your material

Use the menus, Docs, PDFs, specs, and SOPs you already have.

2

We organize it

Line Up builds sections, training pages, study facts, and branding.

3

Your team studies

Staff practice simply while managers can see readiness.

What your restaurant receives

- Restaurant-branded workspace with your name, logo, and sections
- Initial organization of menus, tech sheets, beverage specs, and SOPs
- Flashcards, five-fact reviews, assignments, and readiness reporting
- Routine monthly updates when menu or training information changes

BUILT IN A REAL NYC RESTAURANT

The first Line Up library transformed real food, wine, and cocktail training material at a Michelin-starred restaurant into searchable pages, quick practice, and visible staff progress - without asking managers to become software administrators.

One NYC location • Month-to-month • Delivered within seven business days after complete materials arrive • Routine updates included
